
IKEBANA DISPLAYS

Unique, eye catching and cost effective alternatives to conventional floral displays.

Japanese Ikebana from Kyoto Designs is suitable for all commercial and business applications to rent or purchase.

Examples shown are specifically made for business use and are authentic Ikebana.

Our customers include English and Japanese multi-nationals in the City, throughout London and the South of England.

Purchase: Displays are for desktop use or floor-standing so there is a considerable size and price range. The most popular for office use being around £ 70.

Rental: Alternatively displays can be supplied from as little as £5 per week on a maintained rental basis. Japanese shoji screens and matching bases can also be supplied to create a truly Japanese experience to enhance any reception, boardroom or commercial environment.
